SHY

a chair based on my own personality

What makes a person shy?
Well, they are shy because they feel uncomfortable at certain moment.
And in other times, they are just trying to be normal.

Moreover, we have seen chair
that's loud, chair that's playful, Then, what does a shy chair look like?
the SHY chair:
noticeable but still quiet
in a whispering way

Idea Explore

what are some things that are shy?

plant

mimosa is a sensitive plant that rolls up when you touch them, and by curled in it gives out an shy effect

personality

trying to hide away, peeking, with a sense of blush

color

natural color that's quiet without any add ons architecture

farnsworth house, a house with all glass windows, that see through effect makes the people on the inside feel exposed

SHY

By expsoing the inner structure on the side, making it feel shy with a touch of blush.

The inner structure is the main support of the chair, which is raped around with the exterior leather, and by revealing both sides of the chair, it brings out the chair's shyness with a curled.The overall color are in a natural tone giving a sense of blush.

What makes the chair so special? The Shy chair is designed where you can easily assemble, which you can also change the seat leather along with its back cushions as you wish.
